

Hi, person, who shares the same ideology with me.

My name is Nara and, maybe, we are peers. Maybe, our mentalities and thoughts are also the same. When I was writing this letter to you, my aim was well-known. It had just one name: Peace. We are united with you under the same name. Can millions of people be unified under that name? Don't you want it? I wish it more than anything, and more than anyone. I don't want to look at the past. I want to look ahead, and look to the future. It's not something to forget. We both have bitter memories and traces. But we should do something to have a different future. Don't you think so? Don't you think that it is in our hands? Can we call to millions of people for charity, humanity, and courage? As long as we have this belief inside of us, we can do everything.

The word "Peace" consists of five letters for everyone, but very few people realize the difficulty and the aim of that. Don't you want to live in a happy, prosperous, peaceful and quiet world? Do you want tears, sorrows, fears, destruction, suffering, and hate? Or do you want laughing faces, shining eyes, and love? I invite you to these nice feelings and, most importantly, I call for peace. I am sure, we can make this world a nicer place via peace.

With regards,

A girl who wishes peace
